About the University

Established in 1927 as a business college, Webber International University is a small, private, not-for-profit, regional university offering associate's, bachelor's, and master's degrees to students from over 50 different countries. The University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). Located in citrus-country and situated half-way between Tampa and Orlando, Webber offers faculty access to the best that Central Florida has to offer—small towns, cities, beaches, lakes, and theme parks are all close by and easy to explore.

Webber is home to a diverse group of students and faculty, joined by their common interests in enriching personal experience, promoting an understanding of global cultures and influences, and cultivating a depth of knowledge and expertise in their chosen field of study. Throughout their multi-disciplinary education at Webber International University, students develop the necessary knowledge, skills, tools, and experiences to successfully participate in, and face the challenges of, contributing to a global society.

Webber International University provides equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants for employment and prohibits discrimination and harassment of any type without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, disability status, genetics, protected veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state or local laws. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including recruiting, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leaves of absence, compensation and training.
